

THE CHIRRRUP

Week 5

www.campsangamon.com

Session two went by a the blink of an eye but ogh what fun we had! There was some rain but then the sun came, bringing smiles to everyone. There were camp games with crewmates, diner breakfast, new projects to create, and free swims every-day. But now that it's through we'll miss all of you!

Happenings Around Camp

Today in canoeing and kayaking we played a game called Kylo Ball. An even number of kids were split up into two groups and were put on paddleboards or kayaks and had to pass a ball three times while being guarded and then throw the ball into a canoe that was guarded by Kylo.

WHAT ARE WE BUILDING?! EXCITED FOR ALL OF YOU IN SESSION 3 TO HAVE A LOOK!

I've been to many activities with nice people. Pottery manages to rise up to the nicest. One of the staff is named Matthew. He was very welcoming to a new camper. He is very helpful, funny, and supportive. So that's why I love pottery.

Brenner Philipp. Cabin 2

I have always loved tennis. Lucien is a tennis staff who is always making me do better and makes me smile more. I love to rally and hear the consistent sound of the ball bouncing and ricocheting off of the racket. It makes me feel like I'm home because I play a lot with my mom and my grandmother. That's maybe a hint of why I like tennis at Camp Sangamon.

Brenner Philipp, Cabin 2

I like forge because it requires lots of patience and precision but when you're done you get a very satisfying product. Overall I'm having a lot of fun at camp.

Emil Dardozzi, Cabin Blow

Waterfront is my favorite activity. It is my favorite activity because of the staff. The staff are very supportive and helpful.

Trevor Mulvey, Cabin Gale

CAMP LIFE

Overall, my experience at camp has been going great! The weather has been really good over the past few days so I have had a lot of fun doing archery and the evening activities. I'm looking forward to trying out the rest of the activities over the next week.

Pranav Desai, Cabin Breeze

Rowan from Cabin Gale is an amazing magician. His magic tricks are out of this world. Some may call them "poggers." So if you like magic tricks, just come over and find Rowan and his magical deck of cards. Quoted by the one and only Rowan, you can find him at photo.

Parker Feller, Cabin Gale

Camp has been great this year, I had so much fun at cabin cookout and at the waterfront. I've made many friends and had lots of fun.

Zach Koenig, Cabin Blow

Today at camp I was going on a hike. The hike was very relaxing. I'm looking forward to more hikes like that one. Camp Sangamon is going very well.

Elijah Cunningham, Cabin Breeze

POETRY CORNER

Rocket Launch

The row of rockets
Stood shining that day
Determined that they Wouldn't go far astray
On the Launchpad
The first rocket stood tall
But when the button was pressed
It did not launch at all
We all quickly heard
The saddening news
But it turned out the launcher
Simply forgot to hold the fuse
Nate LeWine, Cabin Breeze

Sangamon In Haikus

Rain is pattering
On the roof of my cabin
A peaceful rest hour
Leo Samaha, Cabin Gale

Riding is the best
The horses are really nice
Photo is good too
Taber Kerins, Cabin Blow

I love Sangamon
I come here every summer
It is really fun
Casey Dimock, Cabin Gale

I really like camp
I boat and play archery
Only one week left
Dillon Nicholas, Cabin Gale

Rainy Days

The sky darkens to grey.
The first drop falls,
Then more follow.
Drops fall everywhere
And the land covers.
The rain is everywhere.
