

THE CHIRRUP

Week 2

www.campsangamon.com

Trailblazing the pioneer spirit

Excited whispers filled the air as the 4th July bonfire was lit. A Sangamon tradition by great means. Burning in front of it however, a new addition. 100, big and bold and leaving everyone who attended in a brilliant orange glow. A century later, Sangamon is still emblazoned with the pioneer spirit.

Week 2 started with a bang and we're continuing the festivities with a twist. We've had lots of activities meshing together. Arts and crafts drew targets for archery as cows for ranch.

Waterfront even participated in co-ed swimming with BC.

Summer's heating up and we're just getting started...

What's been going on this week?

Archery at Archery

Hey my name is Nate and I'm from Gale. There is an activity called Archery where you do archery. It is really fun and I tried it here for the first time ever. I was hitting the target a little bit but also I missed a lot. That is one of the things I have done and it was really fun so I hope to do more things. Nate Crofton (Cabin Gale)

Tip Top Table

Yesterday I went to the woodshop and I finished making a table. Hopefully it will be ready soon. As I write this they are doing the sanding. I can't wait to see how it turns out!

Jonathan Traub (Cabin 7)

Lego Day

My brother Oliver made a car and it won a race. It was a classic if you ask my brother he can tell you what he named it. Lego days are on Fridays in Arts and Crafts; so if you want to build and create, come on down and join us!

Max Lavelle (Cabin 5)

Appreciation Page

DIEGO BEING DIEGO

Diego is the best apprentice because he is Diego. He is so nice and can fetch me water-helps me. Diego is so so drip and cool. I am Diego's #1 fan!

True Doherty (Cabin Blow)

Matteo's Haiku

Time goes by quickly
The staff are very caring
I hope to come back

Matteo, Cabin 4

Chirrup editors take a selfie!

Thank the CITs

We should start being more appreciative of the CITs. They clean our toilets and run dishroom, and just generally keep camp clean. We do our ODA but that's about it. So remember to say thank you!

Max Lavelle (Cabin 5)

HIGHs and Trips

This is the most fun I've had in a while and it was a very funny when I flipped True over in the Kayak.

Lexington Doran (Cabin Gale)

Richard's pancake stats!

3 Hikes

2,467 ft of elevation

7.70 miles

3 hrs 38 minutes spent

First wo Weeks Total

23.94 Miles

6,773 feet of elevation gained

10:35 total hiking time

Trip to Jed's House!

I went with Hikes, Trips & Pancakes to explore the woods and possible trails behind Jed's house. It was very fun wandering through the woods occasionally finding trails, and we even came across Chaffee Falls! Overall it was a very unique and slightly difficult trip and I would recommend going with HT&P again.

Justin Woods Owens (Cabin Gale)

◆ THE CHIRUP ◆

Sangamon!
382 Camp Lane Pittsford, VT 05763

CAMP SANGAMON